

---

Subject: JMU Educational Leadership Program Coming to Your Area!!! Informational Meeting - Tuesday, November 27, 2018

From: Crowder, Robin Glenn - crowderg <crowderg@jmu.edu>

Sent: Monday, November 19, 2018 11:01 PM

Subject: JMU Educational Leadership Program Coming to Your Area!!! Informational Meeting - Tuesday, November 27, 2018

James Madison University is holding an Informational Meeting about their Educational Leadership Program in Albemarle County. Based on interest, a new cohort may be starting in January, 2019. Most students can finish in 24 months by taking one “face-to-face” course each semester!

Courses are offered at a significant discount for teachers. Each course last 12 weeks and is offered on a “teacher” friendly schedule! Please come out and hear more about our program. James Madison University is dedicated to creating and developing new school leaders today for tomorrow’s schools!!!

Teachers from surrounding school divisions are also encouraged to attend!!!

When: Tuesday, November 27th from 4:30-5:30 pm

Where: Stone Robinson Elementary School – Library
958 N. Milton Rd., Charlottesville, Va.

Robin G. Crowder, Ed.D.

Associate Professor/ Director of Educational Leadership

Sarah Miller Luck Endowed Professor of Education

James Madison University

College of Education

MSC 6913

Harrisonburg, Va. 22807

(cell) 540-476-0180