

Allegheny Mountain Institute presents our

2015 School Garden Workshop Series

A series of free workshops for K-12th grade educators

Tuesday, July 21st and Wednesday July 22nd, 2015

*AMI Urban Farm at VSDB
Staunton, Virginia*

Workshop Details

Kickstart Your School Garden

Tuesday, July 21st 9 AM- 5 PM

- How to start a garden the easy way
- Planting, tending, and harvesting vegetables
  - Greenhouse basics
- Gardening in the spring and fall
- Integrating gardening into your curriculum

Schoolyard Composting 101

Wednesday, July 22nd 9AM – 1 PM

- How to turn cafeteria waste into soil
  - Scaling up your composting system
- Composting with worms (vermicompost)
- Using your home-made compost in the garden

Plus, take a tour of the AMI Urban Farm at VSDB including our 1-acre production farm, orchard, and educational gardens. Certificates of Attendance for the workshop will be provided in order that teachers may apply to their school divisions for CEU credit hours.

Workshops may be taken together or separately. Overnight lodging is available.

For more information and to register contact Trevor Piersol at Trevor@alleghenymountainsschool.org